*Wednesday, June 26 at 7 pm

What Happened 2 Chocolate City explores DC's hyper-gentrification through a retrospective lens, highlighting the effects of the 1968 riots, War on Drugs, mass incarceration, and the current economic barriers affecting Black Washingtonians.

After the documentary, there will be a panel discussion with the filmmaker, Mignotae Kebede; director of photography, Mansa Johnson; and John Russell, one of the individuals featured in the film.

FREE ADMISSION, with donations gratefully accepted for Empower DC, which works to enhance, improve and promote the self-advocacy of low and moderate income DC residents in order to bring about sustained improvements in their quality of life.

Please join us - and invite your friends and neighbors - for this first film in our summer social documentary and discussion series, DC: Tales of Two Cities.
